FOREIGN AFFAIRS. From the LONDON Magazine for the Month of October last.

THE only remarkable News we have from Flanders since our last, is, that the strong Town of Ath, which was invested by the French on the 18th ult. was surrendered by Capitulation on the 27th, the Garrison being allowed to march out with the Honours of War, and to be conducted to Brussels.

From Berlin, of the 24th ult. we have the following Account of a Battle in Bohemia: In the Night between the 18th and 19th, the Enemy's whole Army made a forced march, in order to surprize and attack the King in his Camp at Staudentz, near Prausnitz. The Enemy advanced with so much the more Confidence, as they were informed, that the King's Army did not amount to half the Number of theirs; and poured in with all their Forces, which made near 60,000 Men, upon his Majesty's Troops, who hardly exceeded 26,000.

Upon the Enemy's Approach the King drew up his Army in Order of Battle. Besides the Disparity of Forces, we had the Disadvantage of the Ground, which was full of Woods and Hills: Nevertheless, by the Help of the Almighty, after a bloody and obstinate Engagement, which lasted above 5 Hours, his Majesty gained a compleat Victory, the Enemy being forced to retire in great Confusion two Leagues from the Field of Battle, leaving upwards of 3000 Men killed or wounded, with as many Prisoners besides their Artillery, and a good Number of Colours and other Trophies.

Our Loss is not considerable; but Prince Albert of Brunswick, Brother to the Queen, unfortunately fell in the Battle, as did likewise Major Wenel of the King's Guards; Major Gen Blankenstein and Col. Blankenburg, are dangerously wounded: Major Gen. Count Schmettau, Col. Forcade, Col. Count Dohna, and Lieut. Col. Wetiki, are slightly wounded.

During the Battle the Enemy's Irregular Troops fell upon the King's Baggage and Equipages, where the Cabinet Secretaries and his Majesty's Servants were, and we fear they have fallen into their Hands.

To this Account we shall add, that these Irregular Troops had Orders to attack the Prussian Army in the Rear; but being more fond of Plunder than Victory, they delayed executing these Orders till it was too late, which gave their Enemies the Victory: However, they carried off the King's Baggage, and therewith his Cabinet and all his Papers as well as his Servants. Notwithstanding this Victory, the King of Prussia has retired out of Bohemia, having entered Silesia on the 9th Inst. where he is to put his Army into Winter Quarters.

From the Saxonian Camp near Cassel, we have the following Account dated Sept. 20. On the 16th Instant, before break of Day, Count Gage's Army was drawn up on the other Side of the Fulda, and marched in good Order to our several Posts; he made his principal Effort in one, while he only mark'd the others to keep us at a Stand: The River being low, and only Knee deep in several Places, his Infantry, without attacking our Bridge, waded thro' the Water in some Parts, while in some the Cavalry carried Grenadiers over; and in others, he made use of Boats, which he had brought on Waggons for that Purpose, the whole protected by a Battery of two or three Pieces, which he had raised in the Night, this succeeded so well, that our Post immediately surrounded with a considerable Body of Horse and Foot, and the Brigade that defended it, which consisted only of four Battalions, was soon forced to give Way and retire to the Hillocks behind them, where they were briskly pursued by the Enemy's Miquilets and Grenadiers, while the rest of their Troops secur'd the Post, and divided that Body from the rest of the King of Sardinia's Infantry, and his whole Cavalry. Upon this his Sardinian Majesty was obliged to retire under the Walls of Valencia, which was executed in pretty good Order, the Cavalry forming the Rear Guard. Of our Infantry only the four Battalions that were attacked, and one sent to their Assistance, and to cover their Retreat, suffered greatly, and lost their Camp and all their Equipages, together with five Pieces of Cannon which protected our Bridge on that Part. Our Horse was likewise very briskly attacked in their Retreat, and behav'd very well; their Loss is considerable, particularly in Officers; what contributed greatly to prevent its being totally defeated, was, the Appearance of Count Schulemburg's Van-Guard. The rest of the Austrian Army passed the Po, the following Night, at Valencia, and joined the King of Sardinia, six Miles from this Place, where it was resolv'd to take a Camp near the Po, and the Walls of this Town, into which the whole combined Army march'd on the 19th past.

In Consequence of this Victory, the Army of the three Crowns marched directly and laid Siege to Alexandria, which City was surrendered up to them on the 30th.

Sept 23*d*, being the Feast of St Francis, and the Day appointed for the Coronation of the Emperor of Germany, the same was performed with all possible Magnificence; but the Empress was not crowned along with him, that Ceremony having been put off on account of her being with Child.

London. Oct. 25th arrived in the River and landed 4 Troops of Sir John Ligonier's Regiment of Horse, Major General Bland's Regiment of Dragoons, the Detachment of Foot Guards which served at Ostend, Lieut. General St. Clair's Battalion of Foot, Lieut General Harrison's, Major General Huske's, and Lord Harry Beauclerc's Regiment of Foot.

Oct. 26. This Day the six Regiments of Train'd Bands of the City of London, passed in Review before his Majesty at St. James's and made a very handsome Appearance.

Whitehall Oct. 26. Letters from Scotland take Notice, that another French Vessel was landed at Stonehive, with a few Arms for the Rebels. A Party of them was lately at Douglas, where they got some small Pieces of Cannon, 50 Stand of Arms. Afterwards, they proceeded to Hamilton, and took what Arms they found there, and then returned to Edinburgh. Several different Accounts agree, that their Numbers did not exceed 5000.

Letters from Berwick of the 22d, advise, That General Handasyd had order'd eight Companies just arriv'd from Flanders to land and enter Berwick to reinforce the Garrison, and five other Companies to remain at Holy Island till further Orders.

Oct. 28. By a Messenger arrived Yesterday, who left Marshal Wade, with the Forces under his Command, at Darlington, on the 26th, we have an Account, that all the Troops from Flanders were arrived at Newcastle, Berwick, and Holy Island, except 5 Companies of Col Ligonier's, and three of Brigadier Price's, the Baggage of the Whole, and one Ship with Horses.

Whitehall, Oct. 29. By Letters from Inverness of the 11th and 12th, every Thing was very quiet in that Part of the Country. The Earl of Loudon arrived there on the 11th, in order to take upon him the Command of the Troops in those Parts, and of the 10 new Independant Companies raising there, under the Direction of the Lord President of the Session, which were in great Forwardness.

Letters from Berwick of the 25th advise, that the last Accounts they had of the Rebels were, that they still gave out they intended to march Southward; but that in the mean Time they had marked out a ſtrong Camp Weſt of Dalkeith, about four Miles South from Edinburgh, with Dalkeith on their Left, Newbattle Water in their Front, and Melvill Rivulet in their Rear, but ſo as to be open on their Right towards Pelton. Theſe two Rivulets join below Dalkeith at a Place called Smeaton, and fall into the Sea at Muſſelburgh. They have got one Du Bayer with them, whom they call a French Ambaſſador.

Other Letters mention, that the Pretender's eldeſt Son had his Quarters at the Duke of Buccleugh's Houſe; That the Rebels were 8000 effective Men, excluſive of what were call'd his Guards: That they had brought all their Baggage out of Edinburgh, to that Camp; and that they rob and deſtroy all round them. There was likewiſe a Report of a French Ship being arriv'd at Aberbrothock, with Bombs, Mortars, and heavy Cannon, Cannoniers and Bombardiers.

Williamſburgh, in Virginia, December 12.

On Saturday laſt arrived at Hampton, the Brigt. Globe, Daniel Rees Maſter, belonging to Philadelphia. She ſail'd from Antigua the 17th November, bound to Philadelphia, and on the 30th paſt, in Lat. 33. 6 and Long. 70 Weſt from London, met with and was taken by a French Man of War of 32 Guns, 425 Men, Monſ. Letouch Commander, with ſix Regiſter Ships under his Convoy, from Havanna, for the firſt Port he could make in Old Spain; the Regiſter Ships had from 24 to 30 Guns, and from 100 to 150 Men, Three Days before, the ſame Man of War took a Privateer Snow of 16 Carriage Guns and 76 Men, Joſhua Wilkinſon Commander, belonging to Charles-Town, South Carolina. Carolina* for a Hoſtage: Upon which Capt. Wilkinſon became Commander of the Brigt. Globe, and he with 33 of his Men, and Capt. Rees of the ſaid Brigt. and 8 of his Men, proceeded directly for Virginia.

CHARLES-TOWN, February 10.

On Thurſday laſt arrived here the Privateers Marlborough, Capt. Carr, and Reprizal, Capt. Dunbar (lately Capt John Hopkins) of Rhode Iſland. Capt Carr gives us the following Account of his Cruize, viz.
